AND BREAK WORLD'S RECORD OF 75 MILES FOR AEROPLANE.

AT BOSTON. THIS AFTERNOON

Hopes With His Dierlot to Exceed the Altitude of 7,000 Feet Attained by Simpson Pass Flyer Yesterday.
(By United Press.)
Boston, Mass., Sept. 24.—Graham
White, the noted aviator, in a Dierlot aeroplane, will, late this afternoon, attempt to break the world's speed record of 75 miles an hour and also to exceed the altitude of 7,000 feet attained by Simpson Pass Flyer, in his wonderful flight across the Alps yesterday.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY AT CLEVELAND THIS MORNING

Lawrence Blatol, Awakened by Shot, Ran to Front Room to Find Paul Mueller Dead and Wife Dying at Feet.
(By Associated Press.)
Cleveland, O., Sept. 24.—Awakened
by revolver shots early today, Lawrence Blatol ran from his room at the rear of the house to his wife's room at the front, and found Paul O. Mueller, a friend of the family, dead on the floor, and Mrs. Blatol dying at his feet. The police think Mrs. Blatol shot Mueller and then herself. Blatol is held by the police.

APPLE-BUTTER DAY IN OLD PENNSBURG

Schwenkfelders of Pennsylvania Commemorate Heroism of Great German Reformer of 16th Century.

(Special to this Gazette.)
Pennsburg, Pa., Sept. 24.—Commemorating the devotion and heroism of their ancestors, the Schwenkfelders of this section of Pennsylvania today held their 170th annual Memorial Day services. The celebration is popularly known as "Apple-Butter Day" from the fact that apple butter is the principal feature of the day's feast.

The Schwenkfelders, followers of Casper Schwenkfeld, a German reformer of the sixteenth century, failing to obtain freedom of worship in their fatherland, sought refuge in Pennsylvania. On Sept. 24, 1734, immediately after landing at Philadelphia, they held a service of thanksgiving for deliverance from European oppression. A fragrant repast of bread, butter and applebutter followed. Each year since then, on September 24,
the entire denomination has assembled in one of its churches to hold a service of thanksgiving and to partake of a similar repast at noon.

FAMED MUSKOGEE TOWN-LIT CASES

In Which Gov. Haskell is Charged With Conspiracy to Defraud Government in Trial Monday.

(Special to this Gazette.)
McAlester, Okla., Sept. 24.—When the so-called Muskogee town lot cases, in which Governor Haskell and others are charged with conspiracy to defraud the government, are called for trial in the Federal court here next Monday an attempt to secure a further delay will probably be made by the defendants. Judge John Marshall of Utah has been assigned to try the cases.

ONTARIO JOCKEY CLUB'S FALL MEET

Opened at Toronto This Afternoon With Two Great Handicap Events for Three-Year-Olds.

(Special to this Gazette.)
Toronto, Ont., Sept. 24.—The autumn meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club was opened at Woodbine Park this afternoon with the Toronto Autumn Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, $2,500 added, and the Dominion Handicap for three-year-olds and upward, $1,500 added. Liberal stake offerings and a large entry of horses thoroughly seasoned after the summer's campaign combine to give promise of one of the very best race meetings ever held in Toronto.

DEMOCRATS OPEN OHIO CAMPAIGN

In Canton, The Home Town of Atlee Pomeroy, Candidate For Lieutenant Governor.

(Special to this Gazette.)
Canton, O., Sept. 24.—Amid the blare of brass bands, the stirring strains of martial music and the huzzas of enthusiastic crowds, the Democratic State campaign was opened here today in the home town. Atlee Pomeroy, candidate for lieutenant governor,
in addition to Mr. Pomeroy the speakers included Governor Harmon and Timothy S. Hogan, candidate for attorney general. The meeting, in point of numbers and enthusiasm, was one of the greatest demonstrations of its kind ever held in this section of Ohio.

LA FOLLETTE'S LEAD 102,870 ACCORDING TO OFFICIAL CANVAS

JACK O'LANTERN FUNGUS BLAMED FOR POISONING CASE AT CAPITAL CITY

Handsome Burnt-Orange Colored Mushroom Is to Be Avoided—New Edible Species Found.

At Madison this week a Whig Park resident was poisoned by eating a quantity of mushrooms whose qualities were unknown to him. It is thought that he was unfortunate enough to sample the deceptive citrocyle or "Jack o' lantern," handsome burnt-orange colored fungus which grows, sometimes in large clusters,
about the bases of stumps.
A member of the Madison Mushroom club who has recently partaken of a quantity of the little "bleached aman-tinas" declares it to be one of the most delicately flavored of the edible varieties found locally. This pretty

IRRIGATION CONGRESS

GREAT SESSION AT PUEBLO

Next Week Will Attract Experts and Enthusiasts On Drainage And Agricultural Development.
From Every Corner Of Country
(Special to this Gazette.)
Pueblo, Colo., Sept. 24.—The hotels of this city are becoming rapidly filled with the delegates and others interested in the subject of irrigation, who are arriving here from all directions to attend the eighteenth National Irrigation Congress, to be opened here next Monday for a five days session. The National Irrigation Congress was organized in Salt Lake City, Utah, in 1891 and since then has only missed one year to hold a session. It has risen in importance each year, until today it is probably the most important non-official body and also the most influential in the country. It gave the West the national reclamation act, that has already reclaimed more than 3,000,000 acres of arid and semi-arid lands at a cost of more than $50,000, 000, and with twenty-five fine government projects, the most stupendous of which, from an engineering standpoint, is the famous Gunnison Tunnel
on the western slope of Colorado.
The Congress which will open its session at the Mineral Palace next Monday, promises to be the most important in the history of the National Irrigation Congress and it is expected that the attendance will break every previous record.

The opening exercises in connection with the Congress will be held Monday morning, when the irrigation exhibition, arranged in connection with the Congress will be formally opened. There will also be a monster parade of an industrial character, participated in by all the counties and districts of Colorado and her sister states. The object of the parade will be mainly to give to the visitors an idea of the benefits to agriculture and horticulture derived from irrigation.

The opening session of the Congress will be held at Mineral Palace
on Monday afternoon. R. M. Ingher of Spokane, chairman of the executive committee, will call the Congress to order, and introduce P. J. Dugan, chairman of the Colorado Board of Control. After a few brief addresses, and made the meeting will be given into the hands of the president of the Congress, B. A. Fowler of Phoenix, Ariz.

Governor John P. Shafroth of Colorado will welcome the visitors and delegates to the state and A. L.
Fugard, Mayor of Pueblo, will extend a welcome in behalf of the city of Pueblo. Pres. Fowler will respond on behalf of the National Irrigation Congress and, if time permits, former governor Alva Adams of Pueblo will deliver an address on "Conquest, Conservation, Colorado."
The report of the executive committee and of the committee on announcements will conclude the opening session. In the evening the local board of control will entertain the delegates and visitors at an informal reception.

One of the notable features of the session on Tuesday will be addresses on "Private Enterprise in Irrigation," by such well-known experts as Frank
C. Condy of Colorado; Dr. George C.
Pardee, former governor of California; George E. Harrow, of Texas and Major R. W. Young of Utah, second vice president of the Congress.
"Public Irrigation" will be the leading subject of the afternoon session on Tuesday and this subject will be discussed by representatives of the Department of the Interior and men president in the development of public irrigation, such as Senator Francis G.
Newlands of Nevada; J. M. Carey, former senator from Wyoming; Senator William B. Borah, from Idaho and several others. At the evening session William E. Smythe, the "father of irrigation Congress" will deliver an address on "The New Gospel—A Little Land—A Little Living." There will also be an illustrated lecture on irrigation.

Wednesday's sessions will mainly be devoted to the consideration and discussion of drainage, irrigation agriculture and industrial conditions. The list of speakers includes several distinguished authorities on these subjects. In the evening there will be another parade.

The sessions on Thursday will be devoted to the consideration of question intimately connected with water and its uses for irrigation and navigation and to the discussion of general policies and legislation. Senators Hughes and Guggenheim and Representative Martin of Colorado will be among the speakers.

On Friday a business meeting will be held, at which the permanent officers for the year will be elected and the place fixed for next year's session of the Congress. San Francisco, California, St. Louis, Milwaukee, Rochester, Kansas City, St. Joseph and Fort Worth will enter the contest for capturing next year's Congress.

DEAD MAN DRIVES AUTO ON STREETS

(By United Press.)
Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 24.—With a dead man at the wheel, H. A. Cleveland's automobile ran several blocks
today before it crashed into a tree.
When witnesses, who watched the au-tomobile's erratic course, arrived,
Cleveland was found stone dead.
Heart failure is said to have been the cause.

LORIMER PROBE WILL NOT BE POSTPONED TILL AFTER ELECTION

Lawyer for "Blonde" Boss Failed to Convince Senate Sub-committee on This Score.

Thirty-five subpoenas for as many witnesses were signed last night by Chairman Julius C. Burrows of the senate sub-committee that is investigating the charges of legislative corruption touching upon the election of William Lorimer as United States senator from Illinois. They require the presence of witnesses at the hearing on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.
This move followed the committee's formal denial of a motion for a continuance made on behalf of Mr. Lorimer by his attorney, Elbridge Hanney, in the form of an affidavit. The document repeated in legal phraseology
Mr. Hanney's verbal contentions of Thursday—that the testimony deduced might be used against the re-election of legislative candidates who voted for Lorimer and also that witnesses might disclose evidence tending to inform the prosecution in the approaching trial of Senator John Broderick and Minority Leader Leo O'Neill Brown at Springfield.

Before announcing its decision the committee retired to another room for a brief conference. When the five members of the committee—Senators Burrows of Michigan, Paynter of Kentucky, Johnston of Alabama, Gamble of South Dakota, and Heyburn of Idaho—returned, the chairman asked Mr.
Paynter, who is a democrat, to announce the decision, which is said to have been unanimous.

"The committee's opinion," said Mr.
Paynter, "is that the reasons advanced are not sufficient to justify a postponement of the hearing, and the motion for a continuance therefore is denied."

The witnesses and the gist of their probable testimony will be:
Charles A. White of O'Fallon, who confessed that Representative Leo O'Neill Brown paid him $1,000 to cast a vote for Lorimer.

State Senator D. W. Holstlaw of Iowa, who confessed before the Sangamon county grand jury that he had received $2,500 from State Senator John Broderick for his vote for Lorimer.

Representative H. J. C. Beckmeyer of Carlyle, who confessed that he got $1,000 in St. Louis, presumably for voting for Lorimer, but that no definite agreement had been reached in advance.

Walter Rahaley Charged With Crime
—Woman in a Dying Condition.

(By United Press.)
Milwaukee, Sept. 24.—With her throat cut from ear to ear, and apparently in a dying condition, Mrs.
Walter Rahaley was found lying in an alley in the rear of her home early this morning. Her husband, Walter Rahaley, a peddler, is held by the police, charged with the crime. The woman's throat was slashed with a razor. Mrs. Rahaley was immediately taken to a hospital where physicians made desperate attempts to stop the flow of blood in hopes of saving her life. It is said she will die.

MAKE OWNER STAY IN BED

Attorney W. E. Muesse of Hinsdale Is Kindly Permitted to Get Up After Torch Is Applied—Wife Away
On A Visit.

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, Ill., Sept. 24.—Burglars burned up the $50,000 home of W. E.
Muesse, a Hinsdale attorney, early this morning, after stealing thousands of dollars worth of silverware, jewelry, expensive rugs, tapestries, according to the owner's report to the police after the fire.
The thieves loaded the plunder into an express wagon, he claims, and then set fire to the house.
Muesse was alone in the house, Mrs.
Muesse and the domestic being away
on their summer vacation.
The attorney claims he was forced to lie in bed by one of the burglars
while others carried out the property.
The flames had made such headway that they could not be extinguished when he finally called the fire department.

SIX DROWN IN A NEW ORLEANS AUTO ACCIDENT

Machine Seen to Swerve From the Road, Crash Through Fence, and Leap Into New Basin Canal.

(By Associated Press.)
New Orleans, La., Sept. 24.—An automobile containing six persons ran into the New Basin canal and all the occupants are believed to have been drowned. The machine was seen to swerve from the road, crash through a fence and leap into the stream. One man was discerned attempting to swim ashore, but he sank before reaching the bank. Three bodies have been recovered—one of them that of Thomas Beeler, an automobile driver;
another, that of a man named Freeman of New York, and a third, that of an unknown woman.

Three of the dead are chorus girls from the "Queen of the Moulin Rouge" company.

of John R. Walsh, former president of the Chicago National bank, from the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas, was filed at the department of justice today by Attorney Buckingham of Chicago on behalf of the wife and sons of the late prisoner. Accompanying the application for pardon were thousands of letters from business men, former associates in the bank, and individuals in Chicago and throughout the middle west, urging the President to grant the petition.

SIX KILLED IN AN INTERURBAN CRASH AT TIPTON, INDIANA

(By Associated Press.)
Tipton, Ind., Sept. 24.—A head-on collision on the Peru division of the Indiana Union Traction Co., between a passenger and a freight resulted in the death of six persons and serious injury to six more.
The dead are: Dr. W. T.

clown injured. Identification seems almost impossible but the officials are closely examining all possible clues.

Storm Carried Out Bridge.
The frightful disaster was caused by the washing away of a bridge which spanned an ordinarily dry arroyo with banks 30 feet below the level of the tracks. A tremendous rain filled the gorge with a rushing torrent. The Rock Island passenger, coming from Kansas City and bound for Denver, was moving at a rate of 40 miles when it plunged into the gap.

The locomotive, tender and baggage car disappeared entirely under the water, and the engineer, fireman, baggage man and conductor were all instantly killed.

The smoker, which stopped on the bank of the stream, was telescoped by a chair car and many of the passengers killed outright. Others were thrown into the stream and drowned.

Pullman Stays on Rails.
With the exception of the last Pullman the entire train left the track and the cars and coaches were piled in one big heap or rolled into the ditch alongside the rails.

The uninjured passengers made their way to the brink of the stream and rendered what assistance they could, working by the light of the few lanterns which could be found.

Other passengers as well as train-men walked to Clayton in the search for help. From this place the news was telegraphed to headquarters and relief trains were started from Mello-ville and Phillipsburg. Citizens of Clayton in wagons drove hastily to the scene of the wreck and, aided by bonfires which they lighted, worked in the storm amid the debris in the search for the dead and injured.

Nine Are Identified.
The little stream lost its water as rapidly as it had found it, and soon the ravine was practically dry. Down stream for half a mile the dead and wounded lay.

litical Forecasts.

(By United Press.)
Springfield, Ill., Sept. 24.—That United States Senator Shelby Cullom, has served his last term in the upper house and Governor Deneen will succeed him, is clearly foreseen here today, resulting from yesterday's republican platform convention. Cullom was elected to the Senate in 1883, and has served continuously since that time.

Nineteen Injured In Crash.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 24.—A work train on the Southern Indiana railroad was in collision with a passenger train a few miles south of Terre Haute, and 19 persons were injured, four of them perhaps fatally.

The passenger train was an accommodation from the south and the work train loaded with car repairs was going south. The passenger was running on its schedule. It was an hour after the two engines were in a mass of iron before the passenger engineer and fireman were released.

The passengers injured were mostly injured by flying glass.

Fix Blame on Corkwell.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 24.—The state railroad commission today received a report from the directors of the Port Wayne & Wabash Valley Traction company placing the blame for the Kingsland, Ind., disaster on Corkwell, the engineer of the passenger train. It is claimed the train failed to stop at the crossing as ordered.

"OLD GUARD" AND THEODORE COME TO MAT TUESDAY

Republican Drama at Saratoga Will Have Entire Nation for Audience—Many Conventions Next Week.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 24.—The fight between ex-President Roosevelt and the "old guard" for control of the Republican party in New York will focus public attention on Saratoga, where the Republican State convention will assemble Tuesday for the nomination of a State ticket and the adoption of a platform. The general belief is that the convention will develop into one of the liveliest political contests of the generation and the claims are so conflicting and the issues so confused that it is impossible to forecast the results with any degree of certainty.

Democrats at Rochester.

The Democratic State convention will meet at Rochester two days after the Saratoga gathering and in comparison it promises to be an exceedingly harmonious affair. The belief is growing that Mayor William J. Gaynor of New York City is likely to be the Democratic nominee for Governor. The others whose names are mentioned in connection with the head of the ticket Congressman William Sulzer of New York, Congressman James S. Hays of Rochester, Thomas M. Osborne of Albany and Edward H. Shepard of Brooklyn.

Rhode Island Politics.

Democrats of Rhode Island will assemble in Providence Thursday to name candidates for governor and other state offices. The two congressional conventions to nominate candidates for Congress will be held on the same date.

Cabinet Meets Monday.

The first cabinet meeting after the summer recess is scheduled to begin in Washington Monday with all of the President's official advisers in attendance with the exception of Secretary of War Dickinson, who is traveling in the Philippines. The meeting will last several days and the President expects to clear up a number of important matters. According to rumor the Bullinger case may be among the important subjects of consideration.

Taft Speaks in New York.

Immediately after the close of the cabinet meeting, on Friday, President Taft will go to New York, where he is to deliver an address the following day before the convention of the National League of Republican Clubs. From New York the President will return to Beverly to remain there until the middle of October.

Interstate Commerce Hearing.

Thursday is the day set by the Interstate Commerce Commission to begin an important hearing in Washington on the subject of the law passed by the last session of Congress to supplement the safety appliance acts previously passed.

Vanderbilt Cup Race.

The Vanderbilt Cup race, the premier event of the year in the automobile world, is to be decided Saturday over the Long Island Motor Parkway. The entry list includes many of the most skillful drivers of American and Europe and all signs point to a keen and exciting competition.

Many Large Conventions.

A large number of important conventions are included in the calendar of the week. Among those that will attract more or less public attention will be the annual convention of the United Irish League in Buffalo, the National Irrigation Congress in Pueblo, the National Good Roads Congress in St. Louis, the Catholic churches conference in Washington, and the silver jubilee convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in Nashville.

VARIOUS RELIGIOUS BODIES IN SESSION

National Conference of Catholic Charities Opens Tomorrow—Iowa Gideons Meet at Waterloo.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 24.—Many prominent representatives of the Catholic Church, both lay and clerical, arrived in Washington today from various parts of the country to take part in the first national conference of Catholic charities. The conference will be formally opened tomorrow morning with a solemn high mass in the chapel of the Catholic University of America. Mgr. Dineen, apostolic delegate to the United States will attend and Archbishop Blake of New Orleans will preach the sermon.

At the close of the religious services the delegates to the conference will be received by the apostolic delegate and Mr. Mgr. Shannon, rector of the University. In the afternoon there will be a meeting for organization and appointment of committees, and in the evening a public meeting will be held, with Cardinal Gibbons presiding. Mgr. Shannon will speak on "Catholic Ideals in Charity."

Monday and Tuesday will be occupied with the presentation of reports and discussion of the conditions of Catholic charities in cities, dioceses and states. Among those who will present papers or addresses are Mgr. White of Brooklyn, Judge Michael F. Gilroy of Chicago, David Tilley of Boston, Paul Fuller of New York, Joseph W. Brooks of Baltimore and Rev. Mueller-Stann of Strasburg, Germany.

Texas Sunday School Workers.

Houston, Tex., Sept. 24.—Delegates representing a large section of Texas were in attendance at the opening of a big International Sunday School convention in the First Baptist Church this afternoon. William C. Pearce of Chicago, Professor E. W. of the University of Texas, Rev. W. O. Rogers of Oklahoma, Rev. Arthur E. Rector of Galveston and several other Sunday school workers of wide reputation will address the convention during its three days' session.

Iowa Gideons.

Waterloo, Ia., Sept. 24.—The annual state convention of Gideons, or Christian Travelling Men's Association, opened in this city today and will continue over tomorrow. National President A. H. T. Moore and John Nicholson, the founder of the organization are here as guests of the convention. The annual reports show a gratifying increase in the membership of the organization in Iowa the past year.

Canadian M. E. Rally.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 24.—To stimulate enthusiasm in all lines of church and missionary work the Methodist churches throughout Canada have set aside tomorrow for the annual observance of Rally Day. One hundred thousand copies of the programme of exercises to be followed have been distributed gratuitously by the General Board of the church.

Put Your Mind on Bright Side.

If we dwell on the bright side of things in our thoughts, and extenuated them all that we possibly could when speaking of them, we shall think little of them ourselves, and the afflictions would really, in a great measure, vanish away.—President Edwards.

A Secret of Happiness.

Let us sometimes live—be it only for an hour, and though we must lay all else aside—to make others smile. The sacrifice is only in appearance; no one finds more pleasure for himself than he who knows how, without ostentation, to give himself that he may procure for those around him a moment of forgetfulness and happiness.

Shark Beats Twelve Men.

A singular sight was witnessed in the harbor of Panama, one morning, of a man in a small boat, making a cruise with a shark for motive power. Boat after boat went to his assistance, until a string of seven, manned by 12 men, was in the procession; but the shark's movements increased with the increased weight, and, after rushing around the harbor for two hours, succeeded in throwing out the harpoon and effecting his escape.

BOTH ILLINOIS STATE POLITICAL CONVENTIONS SCORE COR-RUPT LEGISLATORS.

REPUBLICANS PRAISE TAFT

President's Tariff Plan Approved—Democrats Denounce Their Opponents for Failure to Carry Out Platform for Revision.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 24.—The administration of President Taft and Governor Deneen were heartily indorsed and a platform was adopted containing a tariff plank along the lines laid down by the president's campaign letter to Congressmen McKinley by the Republican state convention which met here Friday.

The platform commends President Taft and congress, who, as "agents of the people," have carried forward another step the principles and policies which have dominated and controlled the government of the United States for the most progressive half century of civilized life." Continuing it says:

Reviews Action on Tariff.

"In accordance with the pledge of the national platform, a proclamation was issued by the president within forty-eight hours after his inauguration, convening congress in extra session for the purpose of revising the tariff. In less time than was consumed by the previous congress in a general revision of the tariff and with fuller investigation through the committees named and freer consideration by congress, the present tariff bill was enacted and signed by the president August 5, 1909.

"The law has given the government the needed revenue to change a deficit of $58,000,000 in the ordinary expenditures of the government to a surplus of $26,000,000 during the first twelve months of its operation.

For Permanent Commission.

"We favor the creation of a permanent tariff commission to study the changing conditions of business at home and abroad and the difference in the cost of living and of production which prevail in this country and elsewhere to furnish to congress a guide in any revision of a particular schedule of the tariff which such changes may make necessary in the future. Provisions should be made, schedule by schedule, as changes occur, so as to avoid the harmful consequences of business unrest and uncertainty which always accompany a general revision of the tariff."

Congress Work Is Praised.

"We congratulate the country upon the unparalleled legislative accomplishment of the Sixty-first congress in enacting into law practically all of the pledges of the last Republican national platform.

"We commend President Taft for his impartial and fearless administration of the national laws. He has brought to the bar of justice those implicated in sugar frauds against the government, recovering millions of revenue due; successfully intervened to prevent arbitrary increases in freight rates; impartially enforced the anti-trust law and enforced a policy of economy in governmental expenditures without crippling the public service.

For State-Wide Civil Service.

Other recommendations are:
For a state-wide civil service law.
Amendment of state election laws to prevent fraudulent voting.
A corrupt practices act.
Strengthening of the direct-primary law.

An employers' liability and workmen's compensation act.
Closer regulation of railroads and public-service corporation.
Abolition of minority representation.

A constitutional amendment providing for the initiative and referendum.
Direct vote for senators.
State ownership of water power sites.

On legislative scandals the platform says:

"We denounce the corruption that has been exposed in the last general assembly and demand the most rigid investigation thereof by grand juries and courts; we favor the exhaustive investigation of the charges which have been made and punishment where guilt is proved.

"We denounce the bipartisan combination of 60 Democrats and 21 Republicans, which controlled the legislative machinery of the house of representatives in the last general assembly and disavow any party responsibility therefor."

Governor Deneen was named for temporary chairman, was made permanent chairman and delivered the keynote address of the gathering.

The governor called upon the party to wipe out the disgrace, which, he said, the state suffered through exposure that have been made regarding corruption in the general assembly.

"The confessions of four members of the legislature," he said, "and the indictment of four others, and the information which has come to the public in reference thereto indicates the existence of an extensive system of corruption which we as a party must not merely denounce, but correct."

Trustees of University Named.

Otis W. Holt, a banker of Geneva, was nominated for trustee of the University of Illinois to succeed Dr. Charles Davidson of Chicago, who resigned. Mrs. Mary A. Huey of Urbana and W. L. Abbott of Chicago were re-nominated for the other two trusteeships. There was no contest and the nominations were made by acclamation.

Democrats Adopt Platform.

East St. Louis, Ill., Sept. 21.—Deneen, grafters and legislative corruption are denounced in strong terms in the platform adopted by the Democratic state convention. The initiative and referendum, an anticorrupt practices act, and an honest extension of civil service, are given as the remedies for crookedness in public office and administration.

The Deneen administration, accused of broken promises on civil service, was denounced.

Rainey Was Chairman.

Congressman Henry T. Rainey was chairman of the convention and in his speech declared that the "shorts" of the "insurgent" congressman had been purposeless and futile, and predicted general Democratic victories throughout the country in the coming election.

Anna E. Nichols of Chicago was nominated for trustee of the Illinois university by John J. Coughlin of the First district delegation. George S. Pace of Peoria, A. L. White of Vermilion county, John R. Trotter of Champaign, Isaac S. Raymond of Champaign, John G. McLennan and Fanny Hecker also were nominated.

Text of Anti-Graft Plank.

The anti-graft plank as adopted was: "The Democratic party is unflinchingly opposed to the giving or taking of bribes by those seeking legislative favors, and we condemn in unmeasured terms bathroom tactics and jack-pot legislation, and in this connection we wish to affirm that we favor the election of United States senators by the direct vote of the people."

The personal plank read: "We are in favor of the largest measure of personal liberty to the individual, which does not infringe on the personal rights and liberties of others, and which is not inconsistent with good government and good order. "We believe in that freedom of individual action which is not license, and liberty of action that is tempered by law."

Plan to Abolish "Plumping."

Another plank declared opposition to the accumulative system of voting for members of the legislature.

Waterway Plan Fought.

The plan for building a deep-waterway across Illinois was opposed and the Rainey scheme of federal and state co-operation in the venture indorsed.

Other planks were:
"Conservation of state resources."
"Attack on Republican extravagance and $2,000,000 congresses."

"Fixing of railroad rates on a basis of the actual property valuation of the roads, fixed by a constituted federal authority."
"Favoring trust-busting by placing trust-controlled articles on the free list."

"Abolition of all unnecessary public offices."

Rakes Payne Tariff Law.

On the tariff the platform says: "We denounce the Republican party for its failure to revise the tariff downward in accordance with the pledges contained in its platform as explained by President Taft in the last national campaign."

"We believe in a tariff for revenue, a tariff which in a period of rising prices will make the burden of the administration of the government fall lightly on those who are consumers principally of the necessities of life."

"We denounce the Payne-Albright bill as the principal cause of raising and perpetuating the high cost of living."

"We charge the Republican party, and Governor Charles S. Deneen specifically, with a failure to enact a comprehensive civil service law."

Labor and School Book Planks.

Other features of the platform are: Labor—A plank for employees' compensation, and employers' liability; a declaration favoring the amendment of the Sherman anti-trust law so that labor unions may be excluded from classification as trusts; a declaration against the competition of convict labor products with those of free labor.

School Books.—A pledge to provide for Illinois public school children textbooks at prices as low as are charged in any other state.

Cause of Yawning.

Yawning is caused by a deficiency in the air supply to the lungs.

Wanted Further Information.

James Albery, the dramatist, was descending the steps of his club, when a stranger addressed him thus: "Best your pardon, but is there a gentleman in this club with one eye of the name of X—?" Albery answered the question at once by another: "Stop a moment. What's the name of his other eye?"

ABOUT

GOLDEN BLEND COFFEE

One man tried to find a coffee that would be just strong enough, just rich enough, just the right flavor to be a perfect cup.

He had a thorough knowledge of properties of each of the different grades of coffee, he had unlimited stocks to draw from because he was connected with one of the greatest importers of coffee in the world. He found that it required the scientific blending of coffees from different parts of the world in order to secure the IDEAL coffee. The result of his experience is Golden Blend Coffee, the best balanced, most flavorful, richest coffee he was able to produce at a popular price.

If you have been using a higher priced coffee than Golden Blend (28c a lb.) try a pound of it and compare the quality. There will be a saving on every pound and you will get equally good coffee. If you have been using a cheaper coffee than Golden Blend try it and see how much MORE QUALITY a few cents will buy. Don't be satisfied with poorly blended, carelessly selected, improperly roasted coffee.

You will get so much more for your money if you use Golden Blend. More of it is sold in Janesville than any other kind. You will like it best because it IS best. 28c lb.

We handle other grades of coffee, some higher and some lower in price, but each is carefully selected and cup tested, and blended and roasted to produce the very best coffee at the price. Our fancy Santos at 20c a lb. and Imperial Blend at 25c a lb. are among our big sellers and our Royal Coffee at 35c is a blend of the finest selected beans. Those wishing to secure the very highest grade of coffee it is possible to buy will not be disappointed in Royal Coffee.

With each purchase we give you premium checks which are redeemed for hundreds of handsome premiums. It will pay you well to save our premium checks.

How Much For Your Whistle?

"After I grew up and came into the world and observed the actions of men, I thought I met many, very many unwise persons who gave too much for their whistles."

"The Whistle," that story of Benjamin Franklin's boyhood, still points a moral. Young Franklin spent all his money for a cheap whistle, and was laughed at by his wiser friends because he paid four times what it was worth. He learned a valuable lesson at a small cost. For that same lesson many people are paying a very, very high price.

If you are doing nothing to improve yourself or to prepare yourself to take advantage of opportunities that are sure to come in the future, you are paying too much, indeed, for your whistle. If you are working for small wages, and have no training that will enable you to advance to the places higher up, the future will reveal to you in no mistaken manner that you have paid dear, very dear, for your whistle.

This thing of getting a business education is no laughing matter. It costs a good sum of money to get it—and it costs more not to get it. Yet when you get it, the quality is more important than the cost. A cheap business education is an expensive whistle.

THE JANESVILLE BUSINESS COLLEGE

Is the road to ACHIEVEMENT

Twentieth Century Bookkeeping is the latest and most practical system of bookkeeping. It is taught in the leading schools throughout the United States.

Intercommunication Office Practice is not to be had in any other school in this part of the country. We keep in mind that our students are going to be office workers, and we give them a practical working knowledge of office routine.

The SPEED and LEGIBILITY of GREGG SHORTHAND was again demonstrated at the G. S. A. Convention at Chicago, August 5th. Charles Lee Swam, a boy of seventeen, made a net speed of 200.4 WORDS A MINUTE on a judge's charge. The records of the contests show that only four other writers ever made a net speed of over 200 words a minute on a judge's charge.

The U. S. Civil Service affords excellent opportunities for young men. Our courses prepare you to take positions as Clerk, Bookkeeper, Stenographer, and Railway Mail Clerk.

NIGHT SCHOOL

Many successful men and women have started in night school. If you cannot attend day school, do not waste your spare time—attend night school. Same instruction in the same subjects. Our rates of tuition are $5.00 a month, 3 months for $10.00, 7 months for $20.00. This will be applied on tuition in the day school at any time you wish to change.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT.

In one of the Sunday papers is an imaginary interview between "Bill Blue" and "Bill Smiles," in which the latter gives the former some wholesome advice. The following is a sample.

"There is no calamity or permanent trouble, Bill, excepting death and incurable disease. You say the world is against you and nobody cares for you. Guess that's right, Bill, and the world and the people in it never will care for you until you change. You are up against this fact, Bill: There are two parties to the contract, you and the world."

"In the world are a thousand million other people, and you can't change those people. The world says, 'Laugh and I'll laugh with you. Weep and you can go to thunder for all we care.' You can't change the world, Bill, but you can change yourself, and when you do change you'll generally see the world was right and you were wrong. You worry about things that haven't happened; that is, nine-tenths of your worry is anticipated trouble."

"The chief cause of your worry is lack of patience. You want things to happen right away. You envy the rich, you are jealous of the other fellow, who seems to be getting on faster than you. You don't realize that if you look at your troubles all in a bunch the road seems blocked. Look at the mountains! They seem impassable; yet, if you forget the hills and hit the trail, going step by step, you will find the trail winding up, around, over the rocks and barriers, and you keep a climbing, and the first thing you know you are half way up."

The world is composed of two great families, the "Blues" and the "Smiles," and the first name is not always "Bill" for the gentler sex is well represented in both.

Of course there are days when the "blue" predominates, in every life and in every home, days of suffering and of grief, days of failure and days of disaster, but these are the exception and not the rule.

The sunshine and not the cloud, is the prevailing law in nature, and the span of human life is so ordered that the shadow is incidental to the average mortal, yet there are many people who spend their lives in the shadow, refusing to recognize and appreciate the brightness of life.

There are many causes which induonce people to look on the dark side of things so persistently that the optical delusion becomes a disease, and the victims who enjoy it assert that there is no cure, but that is not true. The legitimate offspring of the "blue" family is worry, and the progeny is so prolific that even the man with the "big stick" is satisfied to let nature take its course.

The ceteris of the land are populated with untimely graves, not because of the pace that kills, but because of the worries which sap vitality and shorten existence.

Any kind of disease may be cultivated until it becomes chronic by the simple process of worrying. This is the field where Christian Science and kindred faiths, reap an abundant harvest by lending a helping hand.

Thirty years ago a business man of thirty-five went to Chicago to be examined for heart disease. With a pulse at 120, and a worry to correspond, he knew that his days were numbered, but when the old doctor looked him over and told him that his good heart was attempting to relieve a disordered stomach, courage came back and worries vanished like a cloud.

Then a course of diet was prescribed and a lease of life for twenty-five years promised, if worry was eliminated. He has exceeded the time limit five years and taken a new lease of life, for another specialist in New York told him not long ago that he ought to be good for twenty-five years more.

Someone said, a time ago, that many people seemed impressed with the notion that the stomach has teeth and that nature made a mistake in duplicating these molars at the port of entry, so they bolt their food and trust to luck for results.

Scientific research, however, confirms the suspicion that the stomach is as destitute of teeth as a newborn babe, and that it is constantly being surprised by the fuel shoveled into it without preparation. These surprises are communicated to the brain, and then the worry begins.

The digestive organs influence and control the mind to large extent, and if ordinary common sense was exercised, half the diseases which afflict humanity, could be eliminated. People who have heart disease, seldom know it, but people whose hearts are working overtime, on account of indigestion, are chronic worriers, and the "blue" atmosphere which they radiate is depressing to their friends.

When "Sandow," the strong man, attracted attention a few years ago, his muscular development was envied by many people, and the school of instruction which he established was liberally patronized.

This was the introduction, in a general way, of the science so popularly known today as physical culture, and all over the land men and women of all ages, are building up new tissue, promoting health, and prolonging life through the simple art of intelligent exercise.

The man with arms like a pipe stem and legs like a broomstick, has discovered that he has been defeating development by inactivity and court-worries through laziness. When you meet him today he presents a ruddy face and a stride which indicates a new lease of life, and all because the long neglected muscles have been given employment.

An era of common sense has also dawned upon some of the women of the land. The waist line, which could be spanned by the hand, is no longer an evidence of good breeding, for deep breathing has demonstrated the fact that inhibition was intended to go below the collar button.

The glimble bearded shoe and unwieldy top gear are still in evidence, but they will go with the hobble skirt when women come to realize that health and comfort are of supreme importance.

On the grounds of the Elkhorn fair last Thursday was represented half a million dollars or more in automobiles of all classes from the little runabout to the French touring car.

A man in the crowd, who evidently didn't own one, but envied his neighbor who did, said, "What a waste of money." On the way home a farmer's wagon with a hayrack monopolized the narrow roadway and no attention was paid to the car which came up behind him.

As the driver pulled out to go by he said to the man on the wagon, "Can't you give me a little of the road?" and the answer was snarled back, "Turn out if you want to go by." The same spirit of envy which consumed the man at the fair.

The fact is overlooked by this class of people, that the great automobile industry turned out a product of $242,000,000 this year, and that more than one hundred millions of this amount was paid to American labor. This great volume of money flows back to the farm and the tradesman, benefiting, either directly or indirectly, all classes of people.

Indigestion and envy go in hand in causing worries which should be avoided. We envy our neighbors and worry our lives away in efforts to keep pace with them, or worry because fate does not smile upon us and double our income.

In the brighter light of appreciation, and a more intelligent understanding, an era of contentment will dawn, and out of the "blue" mists of discontent and unrest will come the smile which never wears off, because of the blessings which far outnumber the misfortunes of life.

OPEN CONFESSION

Somehow I do not seem to care about those frightful Guggenheims, who try to strip the country bare, and amble mankind with their crimes. I worry more about the fact that old man Quackenbush is ill; by divers surgeons he's been backed, and now he cannot pay his bill. Upon his bed he's stretched out flat, for days and days he's moaned and cried. I do not seem to care a red about our forests and our coal; for old man Clunkenbeard is dead; his widow's badly in the hole. She has about a hundred kids, and all as hungry as get out; they're needing shoes and pants and lids, and underwear and bread and knit. Their ma will have to hit the tub, and wash until her fingers bleed, to keep that walling crew in grub, and all the things that children need. While statesmen fuss about the coal, and talk of forests till they die, I'll rustle for that poor old soul, and try to fix her with a pie. I do not care a tucker's whoop about the Vital Issue talk; I see some people in the soup whenever I walk round a block; if I can lend a helping hand to some ill used but worthy clump, the vital things may all be earned, and taken to the public dump.

Heard During Rehearsal.

Prompter (to leader of sopranos at dress rehearsal of stirring Roman drama, "Right Against Might")—"Now, are you all right with the cue?" Leader—"I am, sir. When the man in the sheet (toga) hollers 'Katy Field' we get ready, and when he sings out 'Rum and crackers—'" Prompter (frantic):—"Cat! yell!" "Rome and Gracchus, stupid!" "Jesoo, sir; when he says that we are to go for the chap in the brass veskit."—"Till-hts."

How He Likes Fish.

Three-year-old Harold visited the beach for the first time on Saturday, and while there saw the fishermen in the water, thought it over, and wisely remarked: "I don't like fish in the water. I like them in bread crumbs."

Most merchants who are Big Advertisers spend but 2% to 5% of the volume of their business for advertising. In Janesville but few merchants spend 2%, none spend 5%.

Claims and Realities

It is a fact known to every newspaper reader that nearly all piano advertisements make practically the same claims.

No more can be said for the instrument of artistic merit than is said daily for many pianos of mediocre or inferior quality.

If the statements with which the merits of many low grade pianos are exploited were true there would be no sense in paying the price asked for those of reputation and demonstrated value.

But every person of intelligence knows that there is a difference in the musical and constructive qualities of various instruments. For that reason, whatever may be the reputation, one cannot expect to get a fine piano at a price which would be fair for one of ordinary merit, although in any case the buyer should get his money's worth.

In justice to our patrons we draw the distinction very closely between the different grades. We have high priced pianos and also pianos marked at very moderate figures.

Each of these is represented for exactly what it is and it is marked at no more than its actual value.

We invite prospective purchasers to visit our new salesrooms and satisfy themselves of the values we offer.

OFFICE HOURS:

8 to 12:30, 2:00 to 6:00

WOULD you like to pay for a telephone and not be able to use it while your neighbor uses it and pays nothing?

That is what you do when you let a non-subscriber use your telephone.

He is enjoying the advantage of the whole telephone system without paying, but when you want the non-subscriber you have to go after him. You pay for the service but can't use it.

More than that, he keeps the lines busy so that others who are paying for the service can't get it when they want it.

Do you think it just?

Every call put in costs the telephone company money. The telephone company needs the money to improve the service. It must all come from those who use it. Do you want to pay for it all, or would you like to have the other fellow pay his share?

A telephone costs him no more than it costs you, $1.00 per month for a residence phone.

Signing Bonds

Is Dangerous

Have you noticed that nearly every day somewhere there is a defalcation? Or breach of trust? Sometimes it happens that men who are honest and bear good reputations, through misfortune, become involved and their bondsmen are called upon to make good.

Duty to yourself, your family and the community demands that you refrain from becoming surety for other people.

In this day and age there are companies organized for relieving you of taking these chances. When asked to sign a bond, don't be a "good fellow," but inform your friend that corporate surety is the best and does not place him under obligations. Offer this suggestion to him: that he can get bonds, for any requirement, at a nominal cost from

MENNICKE-ERDMAN WEDDING WEDNESDAY

Miss Gertrude Mennicke United in Marriage to Otto Erdman at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. At three o'clock Wednesday afternoon at St. Paul's Lutheran church occurred the wedding of Miss Gertrude Mennicke to Otto F. Erdman. The bride and her attendants were dressed in white and the bride carried a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of her parents. After a wedding trip in the northern part of the state, Mr. and Mrs. Erdman will be at home to their many friends on Ruger avenue. The bride received many useful presents for the adornment of her new home.

ITALIAN'S HEARING POSTPONED TO OCT. 3

Examination of Giuseppe Furchi Adjourned to Give His Lawyer, Carlo Gligliotti, Chance to Investigate.

Giuseppe Furchi, the Italian laborer charged with shooting Edward Miller at the new yards last Monday, was brought into municipal court this morning for examination. Upon motion of his attorney, Carlo Gligliotti of Chicago, the examination was adjourned until Oct. 3 in order to give the Chicago attorney an opportunity to investigate the affair as he had been retained by the defense only last night and had been unable to conduct an inquiry into the facts of the case. Furchi, who was seized with convulsions on Thursday, seems to be subject to them, for he was attacked again yesterday.

MACHINE COMPANY OFFICIAL EXPLAINS STRIKE SITUATION

N. I. Milliken States Labor Difficulties Have Been Adjusted Satisfactorily.

That it was necessary to fill the places of only three core-makers at the Janesville Machine company as a result of the recent strike, the three men who are now out being the ones who incited the trouble, is a statement credited to N. I. Milliken of the local plant. He also said that the company had no intention of employing women in that department. According to Mr. Milliken, the cause of the walkout was due to a cut in the wages of three core-makers who were receiving more than the moulders.

TEAMSTERS STRIKE BUT ARE SOON CONCILIATED

Teamsters working on the Rutledge street improvement job on Jackson street struck this morning on account of some difficulty about hitching and unhitching teams, and work was stopped temporarily. The difficulty was later adjusted to the satisfaction of all concerned.

LOCAL MAN BROTHER OF LAYE MRS. ROSE

Conductor Thomas Leahy of St. Paul Road Attended Funeral of Wife of Milwaukee's Former Mayor. Thomas Leahy, conductor on the St. Paul road between Mineral Point and this city, and his daughter, Mrs. W. J. Hadden, will go to Milwaukee tomorrow to attend the funeral of Mr. Leahy's sister, Mrs. David S. Rose, who died in the Green City yesterday afternoon. Services will be held Monday morning in Milwaukee at St. John's cathedral, with private interment in Calvary cemetery.

Mrs. Rose was the wife of Former Mayor David Rose of Milwaukee, who has been traveling in the west for some time. Previous to her marriage to Mr. Rose she was the wife of the late Oscar Blakely, proprietor of the Blakely House, Milwaukee, but was divorced from him a short time before his death. She resided at one time in Burlington, coming there from Matfield, here home town.

HENRY HEIDBRINK DIED IN CHICAGO

Former Janesville Resident Succumbed to Quick Consumption.

Henry Heidbrink, who was for two years engaged in the meat business in Janesville, died at Chicago at half past three o'clock yesterday afternoon. Typhoid pneumonia which developed into quick consumption was the cause of his demise. Deceased was forty-two years old and is survived by a widow, a son and a daughter. W. P. Keating of this city and F. M. Keating of Chicago are brothers-in-law. The funeral will be held in Chicago tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Heidbrink was engaged in the meat business here and left about a year ago. He belonged to the local Aerie of Eagles.

Thomas Welch, for fifty years a resident of Rock County, passed away at eight o'clock this morning at his home in the town of Fulton, after a five weeks illness with stomach trouble. The deceased was 81 years of age, and was born in County Cork, Ireland, January 25. He was married, and leaves but one sister, Mrs. Mary Kennedy of the town of Fulton. Funeral services will take place at ten o'clock Monday morning from St. Mary's church.

SOME SIXTY-FIVE MANUFACTURERS TO EXHIBIT NEXT WEEK

And Reports From the Merchants Indicate a General Sentiment For Decorating the Stores.

When seen today by a Gazette representative, Mr. DeArmand said that there would be sixty-five manufacturers represented in the "Made in Janesville" exhibition to be held the last three days of next week.

Reports from many of the retailers verify the statement that there will be a general sentiment in favor of making special efforts to decorate store fronts. If this idea is carried out by all the retailers, Janesville will certainly take on a gay appearance and the streets will be very attractive during this exhibition.

Some of the business men have been heard to make the suggestion, that the Industrial & Commercial Club should hire the local band for Saturday afternoon. This would surely be a very good plan, for the band could play at different places up and down the main streets. When seen in reference to this, Mr. DeArmand said that he knew nothing of such a plan but thought that it was an exceptionally good one.

Should good weather be the order of the day on Saturday, there is every reason to believe that a record crowd will be out and hundreds of visitors will be in the city.

DIED THURSDAY IN MONTANA HOSPITAL

Dan Keegan, Former Edgerton Young Man, Died After Twelve Weeks' Illness of Typhoid Fever.

Edgerton, Sept. 21.—The news reached here last night of the death of Dan Keegan, a former Edgerton young man, who died at the hospital at Great Falls, Montana, late Thursday night of typhoid fever after an illness of twelve weeks. He went west last spring with parties from here and assisted in farming. He was a member of the T. A. and B. society of this city under whose auspices the funeral will take place here Tuesday. The funeral will be held from the farm home of his mother, Mrs. M. Keegan, at 2 o'clock and at 10 o'clock at St. Joseph's Catholic church. He was about 26 years of age. Besides the aged mother four brothers and four sisters survive him. The body is expected to arrive here Sunday night or Monday morning.

Big Shipment of Sheep. The first shipment of a shipment of 10,000 western range sheep arrived at the feeding station here this week to be held in pasture until forwarded to the Chicago market. Another shipment will follow soon. This is the first large shipment here this season.

An Unfortunate Malady.

A newspaper down in Maine, in telling of the death of a man through being struck by a railroad train, adds that "it will be remembered that he met with a similar accident a year ago." It is to be hoped that the habit which he appears to have contracted will not become chronic.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The Sole Desideratum.

"Huh!" pessimistically ejaculated the Hon. Thomas Rott, "I don't take no stock in these 'era colleges.' What good is a college education to a statesman, any how? Just so's a member of the legislature knows enough Latin to translate the words 'per diem,' what more does he need or have any shadder of use for?"—Puck.

Ancient Campaniles.

The Campaniles of St. Mark and Pisa were built or begun in the same century, viz., the twelfth. The leaning tower is 179 feet high and 51 feet eight inches in diameter, cylindrical in form, the exterior entirely built of white marble and the interior of Verucan stone.

HJHENADEL NAMED IN A $15,000 SUIT

Is Made One of Defendants As Officer of Rochelle Company, in Action to Recover Bond.

Peter Hohenadel, Jr., as president of the Rochelle, Ill., Clock and Watch Manufacturing company, E. A. Bassett of Rochelle, as secretary and George B. Stocking, also of Rochelle, are the defendants in a suit brought in Winnebago county (Ill.) circuit court to recover on a bond of $15,000, brought because of alleged failure to live up to an agreement made between Bassett and eight Rochelle business men. Bassett, it is understood, has retired from the firm, and Hohenadel and Stocking are the defendants in the action. In the complaint filed in the case, it is stated that the agreement was that Bassett should receive $15,000 for the purchase of two acres of land and to build a factory, removing from Princeton, Ind., to Rochelle. He was also to employ seventy-five men the last half of the first year and one hundred the second and third year. In support of the contract, the bond of $15,000 was filed. It is claimed that the company retired from Rochelle before the three years were up and that, combined with the Dust Proof furniture and Wire Works did not live the force of men as stipulated in the contract.

BRICK FOR STREET CAR CO. NOW ON WAY

Will Be Laid Between Tracks on West Milwaukee Street—New Heavy Rails Coming Also.

Brick ordered by the receivers of the Janesville Street Railway company has been shipped from the Springfield Brick company, to whom the order was given, and will arrive in this city for use on the paving work between the street car tracks on West Milwaukee street, from the west end of the bridge to Academy street, in a few days. New rails, six inches high and weighing seventy-five pounds to the yard, the same as used in the improvements on the line on South Main and East Milwaukee streets, will also be laid. The rails will rest on the same foundation as the brick. The chairs, on which the old rails have rested, will be taken out when the old rails are removed, as several have been broken and a roughness in the line has resulted.

LOCAL DEALERS GET TROPHIES AT RACES

Priellips Bros. Carry Off Two Firsts and One Third in Auto Contests at Dane Co. Fair.

In the automobile races at the Dane county fair at Madison yesterday afternoon, cars entered by the Priellips Bros. of this city, won two trophies, the Gilbertson-Anderson cup for a two-mile four-start race for stock touring cars, and the W. C. Gamm cup for two miles, stock sporting cars, carrying four passengers. William Priellips was at the wheel in a Buick in both races. In the last race, a ten-mile free-for-all, he drove a model T Buick for Johnson, Bros., of Madison, the car finishing in second place. The local men also won third place with a Buick machine in the ten mile contest for stripped cars. There were six races, the winners dividing the entrance money. Dr. R. W. Elden of this city was timekeeper and M. H. Osborn, also of Janesville, officiated at the races as referee.

Ben Kerscher and His 1905 Model Darracq-- An Old-Timer Which is "Still in the Money"

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 21.—A roll of the past which continues to surprise those interested in the automobile racing game is the 1905 model of the Darracq, driven by Ben Kerscher. It carries off the winnings in 1910 as consistently as the latest models. Were this car still being put out the efforts of Kerscher would appear like the cleverest press agent material. The fact that this is an extinct variety puts his work on the truck in a class by itself.

Whenever Ben Kerscher in his old time Darracq, which bears the bruises and bumps of many hard battles, day racing automobiles hurry to beat drives on a race course, the auto racer goes open wide his eyes and says, "I'll bet that old hack can't go a mile an hour." Surely the Darracq doesn't look like a racing motor car, in fact it more strongly resembles the interior of a junk shop. But the old car, which won the Vanderbilt cup race in 1906, is just as deceptive as the man who asks you to tell while shelling the peas is under. With Kerscher driving and it is doubtful if another human being could drive the car! The old Darracq will make the best of present

Awards Him the Championship.
A Kansas City man, who has lived to be seventy-five years of age, declares that he never touched liquor, never chewed tobacco, never smoked, never gambled, never told a lie, never entered a theater, never traveled a mile on a boat or on a train on Sunday, never has spoken unkindly to his fellowman, nor lifted his hat to a woman. Our opinion of that man is that he is the champion liar of the age.—St. Joseph Gazette.

For the Benefit of the Race.
"For goodness' sake, child, what are you doing with your father's fishing outfit? He will be wild when he sees this." "I read yesterday that it would be a good thing for the human race if all the flies could be destroyed, and I was just destroyin' a few."

THE THEATER

"Parade"—Last Time Tonight.
Large and appreciative audiences greeted the "Parade" at the second and third performances, last evening and this afternoon. The final presentation takes place at the theatre tonight.

Sheehan Grand Opera Co.
Edward M. Beck, advance manager for the Sheehan Grand Opera company which is to present "Il Trovatore" here on Tuesday evening, October 11, was in the city yesterday. He says that Mr. Sheehan has abandoned the repertory idea and that his company, which includes the Swedish colt soprano Grace Nelson, Louis LaValle, baritone, late of the Royal Opera company at Covent Garden, and the great French opera star, Elaine DeSollom, who was with the Hammerstein forces last year, is chosen particularly for fitness for the roles of this single great masterpiece. There are forty-seven people in the company and it is by far the strongest out Mr. Sheehan has ever gathered about him.

"Under Southern Skies."
The company is a large one, numbering twenty-three people. The scenery is beautiful, everything used in the representation, being carried by the company. The costumes are quaint and pretty, the rows being of early summer stuffs, made in the fashion of 1875, which is the period of the play. A Halloween celebration during which a pumpkin dance is introduced, is one of the lively features of the performance, and never fails to delight an audience. Beautiful southern melodies are introduced throughout the play with great effect. The story of the play is both strong and interesting, and is relieved with much comedy which is contributed by the dark servants and by their masters and mistresses, who are of the southern aristocracy. "Under Southern Skies" is one of the big successes of recent years and no one who enjoys a first-class play, presented in a first-class manner, should fail to see "Under Southern Skies" at the Myers theatre on Tuesday, Sept. 27, matinee and evening.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

A MIRACLE.

"And a little child shall lead them."
In the year 1862 John Tucker was sentenced to prison for robbing a mail train.

He came out of the penitentiary, a middle aged man, with his lesson learned, but with that natural shrinking from the world the convict feels. He was glad to take a position as man of all work in the home of a prosperous young couple.

Into that home came a baby. The man with a past loved the little one from the first, and as the girl baby grew he constituted himself its willing servant and guardian.

The innocent prattle of the child as it followed him in his tasks helped him to forget. There was no reproach for him in the child's eyes. He was just "John" to her—the helper, play-fellow, big brother.

For many years Tucker faithfully served the family, saving his wages and investing them wisely.

Recently John Tucker died in Chicago at the age of seventy-nine and left his entire estate of $10,000 to the woman who had grown up from the baby girl.

Do you remember a companion story to that of John Tucker—George Elliot's tale of Silas Marner?

Lying alone in his stone cottage, Silas Marner, weaver, had become a miser, who concealed his hoard under the floor, bringing it out at night to gleam over it.

One day during his absence the money was stolen, and Marner was wild over his loss.

But—A few days after he discovered on his hearth a baby girl, whose appeal touched his heart. Dumbly he ministered to it.

As the days went by the child nestled in his desolate heart, taking the place of his lost gold.

And she grew up to be a blessing to him, and he was changed from a miser to a loving foster father and lover of his kind.

Says George Elliot in one of the chapters of Silas Marner:

"In old days there were angels who came and took men by the hand and led them away from the city of destruction. We see no white-winged angels now. But yet men are led away from threatening destruction. A hand is put into theirs, which leads forth gently toward a calm and bright land, so that they may look no more backward, and the hand may be a little child's."

Inconsistency of Happiness.
Happiness is like a sunbeam, which the least shadow intercepts, while adversity is often as the rain of spring.

"Jones tells me that his wooden leg pained him horribly last night."
"Nonsense! How could his wooden leg pain him?"
"His wife hit him over the head with it."

Where the Woman Does the Courting.

In the Ukraine, Russia, the maiden is the one that does all the courting. When she falls in love with a man she goes to his house and lets him know that she would like to be his wife. If he reciprocates a formal marriage is duly arranged. If he is unwilling she remains there, hoping to coax him into changing his mind. He can either stay and be coaxed or run away and hide until she has gone. As a general rule he stays and changes his mind.

Following An Inference.

Tommy heard Mrs. Jones tell his mother that she used sour cream to make the gingerbread they were eating. He was duly impressed with this piece of information, and, turning to Mrs. Jones, he solemnly said: "Mrs. Jones, this is fine gingerbread you've made. I can't taste the sour cream a bit. Did you use bad eggs, too?"—Exchange.

When Conservation Began.

No stranger shall transport beyond seas any pikehead or other fish in cash, unless he does bring into the realm, for every six tunsers two hundred of claphard fit to make cask, and so rateably, upon pain of forfeiting the said fish.—Law of Queen Elizabeth.

Mind Must Be Developed.

No man can get either success or satisfaction out of existence unless he begins early to develop his mind, to make it work for its own good and for the good of the minds with which it comes into contact.

A Sore Voice.

Freddy's mamma was so hoarse one morning that she could scarcely speak. "Why, mamma," said the little fellow, "what a sore voice you've got!"

Discards seek post season game to demonstrate their superiority.
Boston, Mass.—Great excitement prevails among baseball fans over the proposed post season series between the Boston Red Sox and the former members of the Boston-American team who have been discarded to make room for other players. Many of the castoffs are top notchers and the game would be the most spectacular ever staged should the plan be carried out.
The team of castoffs would include the following players who are now starred with other teams:
There is little chance of the game being played unless the Boston fans force the issue on the Red Sox.

This Season Use

Scranton Coal

Because it is the bright, live coal that gives the best satisfaction. You have seen dead looking coal. That's because there is dirt and slate in it. That kind of coal doesn't burn clean, and fills your grate with clinkers. Our Scranton Coal costs us just a little more than we could buy coal for, but the little extra makes friends for us and is a good advertisement.

This year try Scranton Coal. Note its brightness. It's the live coal. Costs you no more.

Leading Figures In The World's Prison Congress

At left U. S. Attorney General George W. Wickersham. At right Rt. Rev. Samuel Fallows, who will address the international prison congress.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 23.—The last week in September and the first week in October will find Washington the world's center of interest during the session of the American Prison Association and the international prison congress. Delegates from all world powers are at the present time arriving daily at the headquarters in the Woodward hotel and delegates from every state will be present at the opening of the American Prison Association on September 29.

Among the most noted commissioners from abroad so far to land are Dr. Nicholas Lebedeff, Stephen K. Kramoff and Dr. Nicholas Louchinsky, three delegates from Russia and Switzerland.

The meeting of the international prison congress in America in 1910 is the outcome of the movement started in 1903 by the American Prison Association at its Louisville meeting. The invitation was later formally extended on behalf of the United States by congress and the president.

Among those who will address the American Prison Association are the Rt. Rev. Samuel Fallows of Chicago and George W. Wickersham, attorney general of the United States. The officers of the association are as follows:

President, Anna W. Butler; general secretary, J. P. Meyers; financial secretary, H. H. Shifren; treasurer, Frederick H. Mills. The officers and special committees constitute the reception committee to welcome the delegates to the international prison congress on behalf of the United States.

EVANSVILLE.

Evansville, Sept. 23.—About twenty friends enjoyed a picnic supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Hansen last week.

Mrs. P. C. Wilder, who has been very sick for the past two weeks, was a little better yesterday. She was given a pleasant surprise Thursday when the Pythian sisters and her family Evansville friends gave her a postal card shower with wishes for a speedy recovery.

About fifteen members of the Camping club accepted an invitation from Mrs. Hattie Spencer of Madison to spend Thursday at her cottage at Fourth lake.

Joshua Blake, who for some time has been living at the soldiers' home in Milwaukee, is expected here in a few days to visit relatives and friends. Miss Neva Fellows entertained a number of friends at a towel shower yesterday afternoon for Miss Decker. The Walworth County fair attracted a large number of Evansville people yesterday. It was an ideal day and the majority of the crowd went in autos. All brought back glowing reports of the Elkhorn exhibition. Some of the visitors from here included the following gentlemen and their wives: B. J. Meates, Chas. Hulbert, Gen. Magee, Chas. Blackburn, Gen. Wolfe, Jr., Will Bliven, Dr. J. W. Ames, Clyde Courtier, E. E. Smith, L. A. Hugley, Ben. H. and Mrs. A. Eager and family, Miss Daisy Spencer, Blanche Crow, Mrs. Jennie Long, Mrs. Frank Crow, Madison Ames, Evelyn, Mrs. James Hubbard, Mrs. H. Tucker, Zola Miller and L. Courtier.

George Clark and family who have been living in the Babcock house on Fourth street moved yesterday into the flat over Mrs. Poase's Millinery store.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Barnum returned last evening from a short visit in Detroit and Elkhorn.

Mrs. E. Gabriel and her brother, Chas. Brooks, have returned from North Platte, Nebraska, where they were called by the death of their mother.

Mrs. S. E. Barnard spent Friday afternoon in Madison.

Mrs. Helen Johnson of Sioux Falls, S. D., is expected to arrive in Evansville tomorrow and will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. D. Wilder.

Mrs. Herbert Hungerford and little son were called to Madison yesterday by the death of a cousin.

Mrs. M. V. Pratt and little grandchildren, Alice and Martin Colony, spent Thursday in Evansville and the city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Francisco attended the fair in Madison yesterday.

Mrs. Fred Allen and son, Malcolm, spent Thursday in Madison.

Is it the Hair or the Face that makes the Woman?

If you think it is the face, take another look at the two heads pictured here. One shows a girl which the most critical would pronounce beautiful. While her features are fairly perfect her greatest charm lies in a mass of fine lustrous hair. The opposite picture is identical as to features and other detail except that the wealth of hair is wanting.

Both of these ladies attract attention anywhere but each for a different reason, one on account of her superb beauty and the other on account of her comical appearance.

The hair makes all the difference. A woman loses her good looks in exact proportion as she loses her hair.

Newbro's Herpicide Saves the Hair

There is nothing which is so destructive to the hair as dandruff. This annoying trouble to which everyone is more or less exposed is due to the working of an invisible growth or microbe called Dandruff Germ. It robs the hair of the sap and lustre of health, burrows down into the follicle and eventually loosens the hair, allowing it to fall out.

Newbro's Herpicide applied regularly and intelligently kills this germ, keeps the scalp clean and hair healthy.

Falling hair is thus prevented and, if the hair-follicles have not become atrophied, a new growth of hair may be anticipated. The life and lustre of Herpicide hair is beautiful to see, is unmistakable.

An abundance of shiny, glittering hair is woman's chiefest beauty and to permit its needless destruction is unpardonable.

Dunno—Seems to me you're always pressed for money.
Doom—It is owing to others.

On Asking Questions.

In general society the asking of questions is cited as the commonest lapse of good breeding. One is afraid at the evidence of impudent curiosity that parades under the guise of friendly interest. Interrogations even as to the amount of one's income, occupation, and not excluding one's age and general condition are legion and inexcusable.

The Five Senses.

In a primary school examination, over which I once had the pleasure to preside, one of the questions was with regard to the five senses. One of the bright pupils handled the subject thus: "The five senses are: Sneezing, sobbing, crying, yawning, coughing. By the sixth sense is meant an extra one which some folks have. This is snoring."—Woman's Home Companion.

Want Ads. bring quick results.

Hundreds of others have proved this sure way of getting perfect health. You owe it to yourself to do so too.

Sick Men and Women!

Why will you suffer and drag out a miserable existence when you can be well?

Why will you hope against hope that taking medicine will make you well when your own experience shows you that it won't?

We have absolute knowledge that the Chiropractic Science makes sick people well. 98% of those who come to the Chiropractor are made well. 75% of those who come to us have first tried the doctors and have failed. Do you want to be well? Then take the only known SURE way—Chiropractic Adjustments. We want a five minutes' talk with every sick man or woman who reads this newspaper. That will give us an opportunity to prove our case. Are you willing to devote that time to learning the truth?

You need not be sick. Hundreds of others who have tried all sorts of so-called "cures" and who failed to get relief—are coming to Chiropractors and are made well. If you want to know all about this new science come to our office for an interview and we will explain the whole matter so you will understand it. Once you understand how the adjustments are given you will not doubt any more. Send for a booklet, "The Chiropractic Idea," written by G. H. Patchen, M. D., of New York City. This booklet costs you nothing, yet it tells you how to get well. It tells exactly what the science is, how it was discovered and how long it requires to remove most every kind of sickness.

Others fail and the Chiropractors succeed. Below we mention numerous ailments that have yielded to Chiropractic Adjustments. Read them and be convinced.

CATARH AND DEAFNESS.

Illustration No. 4. A young man was deaf and suffered with catarrh for many years. We adjusted the third vertebra of his neck, freed the nerves to ears and head, and he is now free from catarrh and deafness.

CONSUMPTION AND BRONCHIAL TROUBLE.

Illustration No. 5. Consumption in a young man. The Case 3. Consumption in a young lady. The second and third Dorsal vertebrae were found in a lateral subluxated condition, throwing a pressure on the nerves that ramify the lungs, causing congestion of the lungs which throw the patient into consumption. By replacing the vertebrae and removing the pressure from these nerves it gives nature a chance to restore perfect health. We have had a large per cent of these cases, and all were either made well or much benefited. Consumption is not contagious, as very many people associate with these cases fully, and yet are no more liable to contract this disease than men engaged in other callings.

Bronchitis is started with a cold or catarrhal condition of the head, the discharge therefrom running down the bronchial tubes which irritates the nerves and causing contraction of the muscles which produces a subluxation of the first and second Dorsal vertebra. The result is Bronchitis. By replacing these dorsal vertebrae we restore the natural condition and the disease disappears immediately.

BILLIOWSNESS, ENLARGED LIVER AND MALARIA.

Illustration No. 13. A successful plumber had enlargement of the liver from a contracted fever of malarial. Severe cramps were always felt. When examined by the Chiropractor the cause of the disease was immediately located. This case was entirely overcome by adjusting spine at 7th, 8th and 9th dorsal vertebrae, thus loosening the nerves to liver, forcing new energy. In billiowness the liver is often overworked by eating more food than needed, and then when it can supply no more, it is forced into activity by laxatives, until the trouble ends in chronic constipation. These people can all become well by Chiropractic Adjustment, freeing nerves to liver and bowels. I have more of these cases than any other kind. It takes considerable time when case is chronic, but can always be successfully handled. If laxatives are continued or stimulants it will end in stroke or paralysis.

DISEASES OF HEART.

Illustration No. 12. Prominent business man found he had a weak heart and that the beats were not regular. He sold out his business expecting to retire. He finally called on us and we found 2nd and 4th dorsal vertebrae subluxated. By replacing the vertebrae we removed the pressure from the heart nerves which restored it to normal, and the man was made well immediately. This man went back into active business. We have a great many cases of weak heart, and usually we are compelled to remove some other lesion where there is a congestion, to lighten the work of the heart.

There is not a disease known but what a greater per cent of them can be overcome by Chiropractic Adjustment than by any other method.

J. N. PUDDICOMBE

Illustration No. 7 shows the 7th vertebra of the neck out of place. A case in point is that of a man who had paralysis on one side, and the heart was weak, caused by the dislocated vertebra pressing on the nerves leading to the brain and shutting off the nervous energy. By adjusting the vertebra, the normal condition was restored and the man was made well.

We have a great many of these cases, and 98 per cent were made well.

DISEASES OF STOMACH.

Illustration No. 11. A nationally known man suffered with dyspepsia and indigestion for many years. Adjusted the vertebra of the spine at 5th, 6th and 7th dorsal vertebrae, restoring the nervous energy to the stomach, and he can now eat any kind of food without trouble. Hundreds of cases are of this nature. All are made entirely well and at a smaller cost than you would pay to a doctor, without getting permanent relief.

RAYMOND PUDDICOMBE

Note the illustration. It shows the second and third lumbar vertebrae slightly subluxated, which causes a pressure on the nerves leading to the appendix. The lack of nerve energy to this part of the body causes appendicitis and by adjusting these vertebrae the condition was made normal, thus removing the cause of the trouble. Hundreds of cases of appendicitis, many of them so bad that operation was demanded, have all been made well by the Chiropractor Adjustments by removing these conditions of spine without any operation. We have never seen a case requiring operation, as the healing will take place by removing the trouble at spine.

FEMALE TROUBLES AND CONSTIPATION.

Illustration No. 16. One nationally prominent lady who has witnessed many cases of misplacement and other female troubles during successful adjustments at the Chiropractic college, said: "If you have discovered nothing more than this of curing these diseases without surgical operations, you have done more to bless suffering women than anyone who has ever lived." We usually find a subluxation at the fourth and fifth lumbar vertebrae, also sixth and seventh dorsal, causing prolapsus and misplacements. These are all corrected even when adhesions have formed. Tumors are easily reduced and growth stopped. This kind constitutes the largest percentage of our cases.

KIDNEY TROUBLE AND BRIGHT'S DISEASES.

Illustration No. 14. A middle aged man had a severe case of Bright's disease. His limbs swollen and aches were breaking out. He had been put up as inoperable and fully expected to die. However, he called in a Chiropractor. Spine was adjusted at 11th and 12th dorsal vertebrae and 4th and 5th lumbar and freeing the nerves to kidneys and the case was soon dimmed, another success for the great new science of Chiropractic.

We have many of these cases, and find the dislocations all about the same. Most of these cases are brought on by overwork, heavy lifting, a fall or insufficient amount of rest.

Illustration No. 2 shows the first cervical vertebra of the neck out of place. This will cause Neuralgia in the head. A woman who had suffered for many years in this condition. She came to us and subluxation was pinching the nerves and cutting off the nerve force. Several adjustments got it back in place and the lady was never troubled since with Neuralgia. A great many of these cases come to us. The subluxation is not always in the same place and the neuralgia is in the different parts of the body.

Illustration No. 3. A young man who had a bad fall and subluxated the second cervical of the neck shutting off the nerve forces to the brain and the result was he became violently insane; this was adjusted and the young man became rational again. The Chiropractor find a great many cases like this one where there is a slight subluxation at this same vertebra that causes people to become fanatics on any one subject but if they are not disturbed they will go along for a life time without doing any harm to anyone or any particular good, but if they are disturbed as in the case of Harry Thaw, when he was disturbed by White, actions which antagonize the peripheral end of the nervous filament passing down his neck causing the muscles of the neck contracting the neck putting a greater pressure on the main nerve to the brain, causing him to lose control of his mind and leaving him with nothing but murder on his brain. But after his arrest and laying in his cell a few days and being satisfied of the fact that he had gotten his revenge then his mind became cooled off, the irritation of the nerves ceased and the muscles of the neck relaxed and then he became rational again. But he will never be normal until he has this vertebra adjusted. And if this vertebra had been normal nothing would have caused him to murder White.

TURN THE KERCHIEF

MAY OFTEN BE MADE TO DO
OTHER SERVICE.

Clever Woman Can Make the Little Linen Square Play Many Parts—Jackets, Aprons, Laundry Bags, Etc., May Be Made.

A little handkerchief is a practical thing if you regard it through the eyes of the clever woman who makes one thing in its day play many parts. It is no unusual thing for women to pos-

more kerchiefs than they can use. The experiment of turning the pretty squares to other uses should be met favorably by the fair sex.

For a handkerchief holder, or really a little laundry bag, the idea is suggested that will occupy very little time and a decorative place of importance in the bedroom. Two handkerchiefs with scalloped edges are effective when placed together and sewed about one inch from the edge. A heading on the outside, two inches from the top, furnishes a serviceable place for the drawing string of ribbon—the color determined by the other furnishings of the room.

Aprons, made of handkerchiefs are attractive gift for the needlewoman.
If the large sizes be bought, then dec-rated borders can be made to play an important part in the construction.

Two edges of one square are used for the pointed lower portion, the sides obtained by slanting and hemming the material. From another handkerchief
the ruffles can be made, and a ribbon belt and strings made to match the colored border.

A pillow for baby is easily made of four handkerchiefs and strips of insertion to form the diagonals of the square. Dainty and easy of construction, with perhaps a touch of pink or blue if you wish, four handkerchiefs cannot be put to a better use.

From one kerchief a baby cap for a tiny head can be made in about twenty minutes. One edge should be turned back, and fullness allowed for the head by gathering the rest of the square at the back; cut off the pointed flaps and sew into a narrow band of mufl or ribbon.

Handkerchief jackets are legion, but one has been sketched to refresh your mind, lest you forget.

Lay the kerchief in pleats to see just how much to allow for the little tabs at the top. Cut off and sew together. Ironing will give the tailored effect of a ready-made. A touch of color, if you wish, can be added by em-brodering over the raised flowers or dots.

Don't let the handkerchiefs go to waste. They can be fashioned into pretty gifts for your friends, and no one will appreciate the cleverness of the idea more than recipients.

Gems on Lace Restore Gown.
For the restoration of an evening gown, so that it may do duty during the summer dancing season, sew gems upon the lace.

Laces when cleaned frequently suffer most in the elaborate gown. They are fragile and reach the repair point
while the gown is still good.

Then it is that glass gems or large beads come into requisition as beautiful, as well as patches.

Used discreetly they will cover most successfully any small darn or rent, and will at the same time enrich and often recolor the garment.

This adding of a new touch to the half-worn article of apparel is frequently truer economy than the rebuilding of a garment, with new materials which usually attain almost the price of a new gown.

Instead of Handwork.

The woman who wants embroidered effects, but does not like "arduous work" will welcome a new silk braid that looks like chain stitching.

A design is stamped up for ordinary embroidery and the braid is sewed on the outlines by hand. A few filling stitches or French knot centers increase the effect of hand embroidery.

These braids come in colors to match most of the new shades of dress material. They are especially effective on pongees and shantung done in self-tones.

To Test Nutmegs.

To test nutmegs, prick them with a pin. If they are good oil will instantly spread around the puncture.

Garment Displays For Fall

The past week's opening has afforded opportunities for the display of Fall Garments and Millinery and many visitors have been in the show rooms each day since the start. The coming week beginning Thursday, Sept. 29th, will witness another showing even more interesting,
in that, besides each store's individual lines,
there will be exhibited one other line of goods manufactured in Janesville. With us, we are pleased to announce that "The Caloric Company" will have an exhibit of their nationally advertised "Fireless Cookstove" and in every show window on the business streets will be shown some Janesville made article. It will be an exhibition better than a fair, and out of town people will be well repaid by a visit on one of the three days, Thursday, Friday or Saturday. When in town we invite you to visit

The Overland's War On Cost

The most significant event in the past year of motorism has been the Overland's war on cost. Millions have been invested—myriads of costly machines installed—to give you better cars for less money.

For years the main problem in automobiles was to create a perfect machine, regardless of cost.
But that was pretty well solved—by a dozen good makers—before the Overland entered the field.
This is a new era and the new problem is to minimize the cost. The rivalries of the future will be in economies. The car which leads from this time on will be the car which gives the most for the money.

It is there that the Overland has outstripped its rivals. On these lines it has gained a leading place in the field. It has done more than all others to lessen the cost of making good automobiles.
This has required an army of experts and millions of dollars. It has compelled the abandonment of hundreds of old machines. It has required the building of countless machines to perform each operation in the most exact economical way.

But the cost of Overlands has been cut 20 per cent within the last year alone. And every cent of the saving has gone to Overland buyers. As a result, Overland sales for the current year will exceed $25,000,000.

A 25-horsepower Overland sells for $1,000 this year. It has a 102-inch wheelbase—a possible speed of 50 miles per hour.

A 40-horsepower Overland with single rumble seat sells for $1250. The wheelbase is 112 inches.
Every price includes magnets and gas lamps.

So with every model. The man who knows cars is always amazed when he sees what the Overland gives for the money.

Extensive Showing Of New Fall Suits, Coats, Furs

Our new suits this fall are more than meeting
the expectations of all who have visited this big cash store. The line is comprehensive, the values are exceptional in many instances.

The suits are made of several new fabrics this season, including imported Scotch Mixtures and rough mannish suitings, as well as the diagonals, serges, etc.

The coats are the hip lengths, made plain, lined with satin and Persian silks, trimmings on collars and cuffs.

The skirts come plaited or modified hobble styles. All the new colors and mixtures are here.
Prices, $12.50 to $35.00.

New Coats for Women

The coats for this season also are plain tailored,
semi-fitting styles, 52 to 56 inches long, in colors
and fabrics similar to the suitings but heavier.

The new Presto and Ardock collars are shown in coats, sizes 14 to 44, prices $7.50 to $35.00.

Featured this season are the new full length plush and caracul coats, in exceptionally pretty styles.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON.

LETTERS OF A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS WOMAN TO HER NIECE.

DEAR Niece Joan:—
Is it possible that in two or three weeks you will actually be through with that school and ready to begin earning that bread and butter in earnest?

Well, my child, let me give you one piece of advice as emphatically as I possibly can.

Don't be too ready.

Of course, I know you are anxious to begin using all that newly acquired knowledge; but a few weeks or a month or two spent in resting and taking your time about getting a really good position, isn't going to send you to the poor farm.

And by the right position, I don't mean the one where you'll get the most money immediately. There are several things more important than your initial salary.

One of them is the salary you can get later.

There are lots of places where the business simply can't pay a stenographer over a certain amount. I know a girl who went to one of these places eight years ago at ten dollars a week. She was a good stenographer and a very clever business woman. With her ability she ought to be getting at least twenty or twenty-five dollars a week now; but she's getting just fourteen. She has learned a good deal about the details of the business and is almost invaluable to them, but they can't pay her more because the money simply isn't there.

There wasn't a great deal of dictation so her stenography has gotten rusty, and the business details learned there wouldn't do her much good elsewhere, so I imagine if she took another position she would hardly get more than ten or twelve dollars.

That's the kind of place to keep out of, niece, no matter if the initial salary is pretty good.

I have two stenographers and one clerk working for me now; Joan, so maybe what I'm going to say next will sound rather queer; but I'm going to say it just the same. Don't get a place where you have to work for a woman. I don't like to go back on my sex, but honesty compels me to admit that women are usually about half as pleasant to work for as men. A man boss never thinks of being jealous, because no matter if you do three quarters of his work, he's too conceited to even consider you as a rival, but a woman boss is perpetually afraid you're going to creep up on her, and so she has to be perpetually showing her superiority. As you value your peace of mind and your chances of success don't get a position where you have to work for a woman.

Don't take a position without inspecting the material conditions under which you are to work. I know a girl who refused a good position with chances for advancement, for just one reason—artificial light. I think she did right. Obliging anyone to work by artificial light ought to be forbidden by law, just as making girls stand up all the time at their work is prohibited in some states. But as long as it isn't, make that your own law.

So what kind of a typewriter you're going to have. There's no worse handicap than a poor machine.

And last, if you are to work for one man, pick that man carefully.

In some ways, business man and stenographer is a closer relation than man and wife. It can't help, but be. Many business men see their stenographers eight hours of the day, their wives four.

Wish I could lend you my experience for this important performance of getting a position. Then again, maybe it would make you too cranky and critical and you'd get along better without it.

Here's hoping anyway.

But whatever kind of blank or prize you draw in the lottery, niece, be sure to write straight off quick about it to—
Your Absorbingly Interested Old Aunt,

HINTS FOR THE HOME

After making all the regulation preserves and pickles such as are found in all households, it will be a wise plan to make up several mysterious compounds, which will be both do-it-for-everything and provocative of interest. In old-fashioned southern households there are many family recipes which never go to outsiders. The housewife would not ask another for her formulae for special compounds. It is a breach of etiquette. It may seem a little selfish, but it adds a charm to housekeeping which adds to the romance—the careful preservation of family traditions of the past, and the pickles, cloths, etc.

Try to find some for yourself, which you may write down in a little book for your daughter for her housekeeping. She will enjoy the mystery and her daughter will speak proudly of mother's and grandmother's recipes. Take any one of the strange and mysterious recipes published constantly in the papers. Use it as a base, and add and take from—being careful to weigh and keep count of the additions until you have something unusually fine and "all your own." Here is a good foundation for experiment.

ORANGE MARMALADE—Use some oranges which are thin skinned. Twenty will do if they are of medium size. Wash and slice thin, rejecting seeds. Wash and slice three lemons in the same way. Save all juices and add enough water to make three quarts without the fruit. Allow them to soak over night in a porcelain kettle or stone jar. In the morning bring to a boil over a low fire and simmer until the peel is tender. Add six pounds of granulated sugar and boil till clear and like thin jelly. Pour into glasses, cover with paraffined paper and cover with jelly glass tops. It may be sealed with paraffin if desired. It will keep in open jars, but is not so sanitary.

Now if you are a born cook divide this marmalade and experiment with part of it. Raisins, seeded, and cut in thin strips, might be fine. Figs which have been boiled till tender, may be added and make a chutney which is delicious. Try to improve on the foundation and make something not only "new and strange," but excellent to the taste.

Pick make delicious preserves. The ordinary pressed idea of commerce may be used. They should be boiled in water to which has been added a little sherry wine, till soft and tender. This will make them plump and round. Add sugar to make a thick syrup and boil till very heavy and sweet. This will keep also in open jars, but is better sealed.

Prunes which have been cooked in the cooker so that they are not in pieces may be sugared and spiced and they will lose all semblance to the despised dish of the Johnsmith.

The small yellow tomato is the most tropical fruit for preserving that grows in the north. This may be used in the old formulae of pound for pound or be spiced and changed by the addition of the green ginger root. They are also best cooked in the cooker in a double boiler. The original in your cooking as well as in other things. It adds a charm to the work.

"The little father of the yards," has received an invitation from the Brazilian government to go to the South American country in June and participate in the dramatic festival to be held there.

The recipient of this offer is Sarah Padden, a charming actress who was formerly a member of the Olds Skinner company, playing in the south. She made the acquaintance of Capt. Charles White, an officer of the Brazilian navy and commandant of the battleship Scorpion.

Last week she received a formidable packet in the mail, postmarked Rio Janeiro.

It was an invitation from the Brazilian government, inviting her to take part in the "Festa de Dramaticos," to be held in the South American capital in June. If Miss Padden accepts the invitation it will be the first time that any actress other than a native of the country has appeared.

What Women Have Done.

It was a woman who invented pantaloons, the Turkish women first wearing them, and the trousers men wear are all evolution. In fact, it seems that women are responsible for most of the good and bad things in the world.

The Highest Gift of Man.

Words, money, all things else, are comparatively easy to give away; but when a man makes a gift of his daily life and practice, it is plain that the truth, whatever it may be, has taken possession of him.—James Russell Lowell.

A WONDERFUL POWER.

THE MARY HENNELLY

If you had a Yoga's power to project yourself—your soul self—into space while your body lay sleeping it would be of questionable value.

Not many of us would find happiness following our vagrant wills into strange and unknown worlds.

Our eyes are often blind more fully to scenes and happenings that would make us miserable. It is part of the great wisdom that our souls stay in our bodies till they are worn out and we pass into something new and strange.

There is a power, however, that is just wonderful and which we may all acquire if we will. It is the power to "put yourself in another's place" mentally.

Children are more often misunderstood than we think. It is not lack of sympathy, but sometimes lack of time and lack of thought which makes mothers impatient and dense to the needs of the ones they love best. Suppose you have grown impatient with your children because they are impatient that the day is rainy and cold—try to imagine what would give you pleasure if you were just ten—or "golden" on "evening."

DAILY DIET HINTS

By DR. T. J. ALLEN
Food Specialist.

ALBUMEN IN THE DIET.

Albumen is the most important element of food—if it can be said that one necessary element is more important than another. Flesh is chiefly albumen, and to make cells, of brain, liver or arm, albumen must be supplied in the food. In milk, the natural food of the young, we find about ten per cent. of the solid constituents albumen. The by-products of albumen are eliminated through the kidneys, with greater expenditure of energy than is required for any other—rheumatism, Bright's disease and other diseases resulting from failure to eliminate them properly. An exclusive diet of meat will give good results for a short time only. Nuts and cereals are natural sources of albumen, although nuts contain too large a percentage, and must be balanced with fruit which contains little albumen; an ideal ration being a substantial protein meal of whole grain bread, never fresh, and peanuts or walnuts and a meal of prunes and apples with a tablespoon of olive or peanut oil. Albumen should be taken in its natural state uncoagulated by heat. Peanuts are injured by roasting.

The Reason Why.
"Old Dr. Goodman is very fond of young people, and about the best matchmaker I know." "He ought to be, considering that he is famous as a heart specialist."

Why?
We have often wondered why so many girls had their hooks with plaid solos, and why so few of them use tried chicken.

We not only sell the richest and purest pasteurized Milk and Cream but we take special precaution to see that it is delivered to you by the safest method. Every bottle is thoroughly washed in hot water (140 degrees) by a machine which forces it into the bottles under tremendous pressure three different times during the washing; then the bottles are scalded by the same method with water 160 degrees fahrenheit.

The bottles are sealed with air-tight sanitary stoppers.

Our modern Milk Depot is the only one in the city equipped in this way.

You can get the best for no more money—why not change today?

SYNONYMOUS WITH GOOD BREEDING.

A woman of good breeding never neglects her hands. If she is wise she will make frequent visits to some competent manicurist. The hands, the finger nails speak eloquently for or against one's character. Well cared for, properly manicured finger nails make you known from criticism. Do not risk going into a drawing room, theatre, hotel, or any public place, without having your nails well manicured. This branch of our business receives special attention.

FIND BANKER SLAIN IN BUGGY.
Rich Muncie, Ind., Citizen Shot in Head—Propped Up by Assassin.
Muncie, Ind., Sept. 24.—What was supposed to be a case of suicide is now known to have been one of assassination and the police are seeking to solve an unusual mystery. Norman Black, a wealthy banker, took his horse and buggy from a livery stable. An hour later the horse returned to the barn with Black, sitting upright, unconscious in the buggy, blood oozing from a bullet wound in his head. The reins were wrapped about the whip stock. Black died two hours later in a hospital.

Examination showed that the assassin had carefully propped the dying man up in the buggy and had probably turned the horse's head toward the barn where it was kept.

An autopsy revealed that a single bullet had taken effect. It penetrated the brain.

PROSECUTION FOR PARENTS UNDER LAW

County Superintendent of Schools of Green Co. Reports Cases Where Children Do Not Attend School.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
MORRIS, Wis., Sept. 24.—County Superintendent of Schools J. C. Penn in his annual report to the trustee officer of the county, H. L. Ball, states that eighty-two parents in Green county are delinquent under the school laws of the state. The trustee officer will now have to deal with the parents. There are 100 children in the county between the ages of 7 and 14, the required ages, who do not attend school during at least six months of the school year. Upon a warrant issued by the district attorney, the sheriff shall proceed against such parents.

Mrs. Knight Dead.
Mrs. Margaret Knight, mother of Mayor W. J. Knight, of this city, died here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Goddard, following a two weeks' illness due to old age. She was a native of Ireland and located with her parents in Baltimore, Md., when very young. In 1856 she came to Wisconsin with her husband, John Knight, settling on a farm in the town of Adams. They retired from active life and came to Monroe to reside fourteen years ago. Mrs. Knight had made her home with her daughter since the death of Mr. Knight in 1895. Funeral services were held this morning from the home at 9 o'clock and at 9:30 from St. Victor's church, of which she was a devout member.

To Get Extra Pay.
Captain P. A. Shriver has received word from headquarters stating that the members of Co. H, who were delayed on their return home from maneuvers at Sparta a month ago, will receive an extra day's pay, which will mean the distribution of $15 additional among the members of the company.

Local Items.
Mr. and Mrs. Allan Lewis, of Logansport, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kittle, of Oaklawn, and Andrew Lowe, of Hattgen, were here today to attend the funeral of Miss Edna Lewis. Floral tributes were many and former classmates were the pallbearers. The funeral was held from the home on East Washington street at 1:30 and interment was in Greenwood cemetery.

FIRE IN STEAM LAUNDRY AT BRODHEAD, THURSDAY

Electric Flatiron, Which Had Been Left With Current Turned On, Started Blaze.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
BRODHEAD, Sept. 23.—Fire was discovered in Gumbart's steam laundry last evening about eight o'clock and the fire department was called out. A small blaze had been started near one of the windows, caused by someone who had been using electric flatiron neglecting to turn off the switch. But little damage was done. The game of ball between the colored Union Giants of Chicago and the local team, which occurred Thursday afternoon, resulted in a victory for the former. Score, 12 to 13.

C. B. Atkinson is adding a porch to his residence.

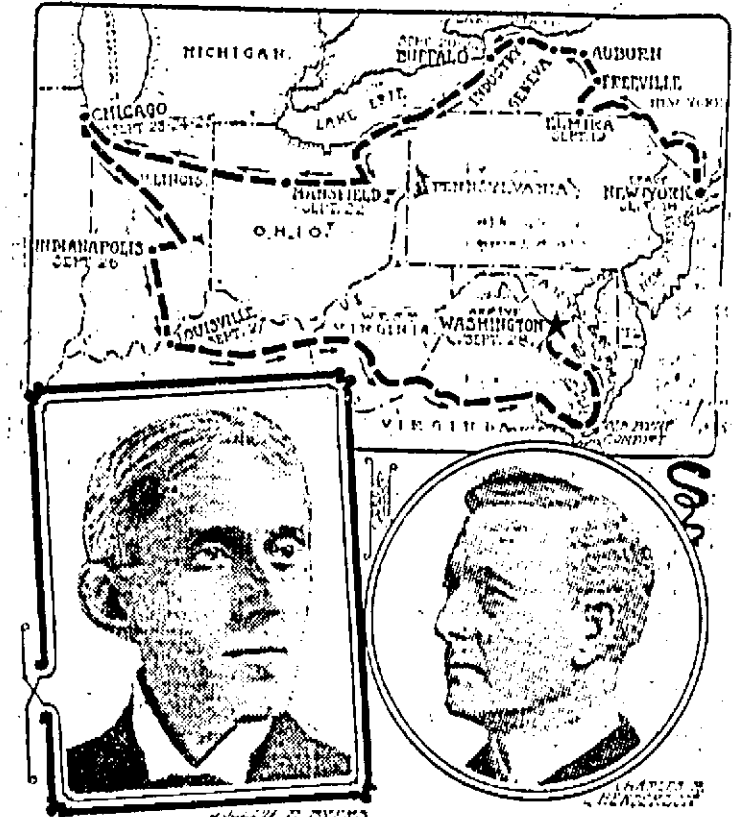

Mr. and Mrs. John Chambers of Monroe have been visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. H. Stule.

WOMAN FASTS 40 DAYS; DIES.

Predicts Date of Death—Spends Time Preparing for End.

Toledo, O., Sept. 24.—As the grave closed over the body of Mrs. L. E. Sackett of Tiffin there passed from human ken one of the most remarkable cases noted by science, a case in which the supernatural seemed to have directed events. Mrs. Sackett died on the fortieth day of a fast.

The woman predicted when she commenced her fast that she would die on the fortieth day. Her husband shared her belief, and both spent the intervening time in preparation.

During her long fast Mrs. Sackett was very cheerful and contented, which puzzled the physicians who attended her. Until three months ago she had enjoyed good health, but then was stricken with a bad case of stomach trouble, and the fast was necessitated by her condition.

Dunkirk, N. Y., Sept. 24.—The Standard Oil company has struck a gas well at Arkwright, which has a steady flow of hourly 1,000,000 feet a day. The roar of the escaping gas is heard a mile away.

FEAR ARMY OFFICER IS SLAIN

Captain O'Connell Disappears From Fort Snelling Facing Court-Martial.
St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 24.—Captain John J. O'Connell of the Twenty-eighth Infantry, Fort Snelling, one of the best known army officers in the Department of Dakota, has been missing nearly two weeks, under circumstances so mysterious that the police chiefs of St. Paul and Minneapolis and every army post in the north-west have been notified to help in the search for him.

Brother officers believe he has either been murdered or committed suicide. Trouble with superior officers and the fact that he was to have been court-martialed for a minor offense are given as possible causes for suicide.

DENY SCOTTISH RITE DISCORD.
Active Members of Supreme Council Explain Lawrence's Resignation.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 24.—Active members of the supreme council of the thirty-third degree Scottish Rite Masons denied that there had been any friction in the workings of the council, and that General Lawrence had resigned because of a lack of harmony. Frederick E. Stevens of Detroit said: "On account of his advanced age and uncertain health and upon the advice of his physicians, General Lawrence resigned from the office of sovereign grand commander to the great regret of the members of the supreme council."

Hadley Sails for Europe.

New York, Sept. 24.—Arthur T. Hadley, president of Yale, who recently was appointed by President Taft, chairman of the stocks and bonds commission, sailed today for London. In that city and in Berlin he will spend several weeks solely in the interests of the commission's work.

But He Should Keep on Trying.

A well-known editor who was facile in rejections was tested with an early writing of his own, sent under an unknown name. After glancing at the title, which was new, he wrote to the contributor stating that the article was not up to standard, and adding that "it would do the writer no harm to continue writing such articles, but it was clear from his work he did not possess the ability necessary to secure acceptance."—Author Magazine.

Your Baby Carriage

"IF IT COMES FROM ASHCRAFT'S IT MUST BE GOOD"
We don't know whether you need a baby carriage or not, but when you do need one you won't be able to find any more up-to-date or a more varied stock in this part of Wisconsin, than you'll find right here.

In the long run, the reasonable prices you find here, though important, don't mean so much to you as the absolute certainty that everything you buy here is reliable.

Anyhow, that's the way we look at it
